Mitcheldean is a small town located in the Forest of Dean district of Gloucestershire, England. It is situated in the northern part of the Forest of Dean, approximately 8 miles (13 kilometres) west of the city of Gloucester.

Mitcheldean is known for its historic charm and its location within the beautiful countryside of the Forest of Dean. The town has a rich history, and evidence of its past can be seen in the architecture of its buildings. The 13th-century church of St. Michael and All Angels, for example, is a notable landmark in Mitcheldean.

The town features a range of amenities to serve its residents. These include local shops, pubs, a primary school, the Ofsted Outstanding secondary school Dene Magna, a library, and a community centre. The town hosts various events throughout the year, including festivals and markets.

Mitcheldean is also a gateway to the natural wonders of the Forest of Dean. The area offers opportunities for outdoor activities such as walking, cycling, and exploring the woodland trails. Nearby attractions like the Clearwell Caves and Puzzlewood add to the charm of the region.

The property is accessed via a metal weather shield door with arched glazed panels inset, obscure double glazed panel to side. This gives access into the:
