Drybrook is a village located in the Forest of Dean district of Gloucestershire, England. Situated in the western part of the Forest of Dean, it is about 3 miles west of the town of Cinderford.

The village offers a peaceful and rural atmosphere, making it an ideal location for those seeking a quieter lifestyle. The surrounding forest and woodlands provide opportunities for walking, cycling, and exploring nature. The village is located near the start of the famous Wysis Way long-distance footpath, which offers scenic views and connects to other parts of the Forest of Dean.

The village has a strong community spirit and a range of amenities to serve its residents. These include a primary school, a village hall, a post office, and a local shop.

Sports enthusiasts can enjoy the local rugby club, which has a strong presence in the village and actively engages in the community.
