Hereford, a historic cathedral city nestled in the heart of the Wye Valley, offers a perfect blend of rural charm and modern conveniences. Renowned for its stunning natural surroundings, the city is set against the backdrop of rolling hills, lush countryside, and the tranquil River Wye, making it a haven for outdoor enthusiasts. Whether you're interested in scenic walks, riverside picnics, or exploring the nearby Malvern Hills, Hereford offers an abundance of opportunities to embrace nature at its finest.

The city itself boasts a rich heritage, with its most famous landmark, Hereford Cathedral, being home to the world-famous Mappa Mundi, a medieval map of the world. Stroll through the charming streets and you'll find a delightful mix of independent boutiques, cafés, and restaurants, alongside more modern shopping and entertainment options. For families, Hereford offers excellent schooling options, both state and private, with a strong sense of community evident throughout.

Despite its idyllic countryside setting, Hereford is well-connected. The train station provides regular services to major cities like Birmingham, Cardiff, and London, and the nearby road networks, including the M50 and A49, make it a convenient base for commuters.

The property is accessed via an arched opening with quarry tiled step leading to the front door of metal weather shield construction. This leads into the:
