The thriving community of Sandleheath has the benefit of a well-stocked general store, a chapel, tennis club and village hall. There is easy access to rural footpaths and bridleways from the property leading to pleasant country walks and the village lies to the west of the New Forest National Park which offers thousands of acres of woodland and heathland to explore. There are further shopping facilities available in nearby Fordingbridge where there are a variety independent shops, pubs and eateries, a building society, public library and churches of various denominations. For education there is infant & junior schooling at Western Downland with centres at nearby Damerham & Rockbourne respectively and in Fordingbridge, both feeder schools for the Burgate Secondary School and Sixth Form. Salisbury is 11 miles to the north where there is a mainline rail station to London Waterloo. The M27 junction 1 is some 11 miles via the B3078 from Fordingbridge.

The property has been in the same ownership for some 60 years, having been adapted and altered during the current ownership, the property now offers scope to further update and reconfigure to bring up to today's expectations. Benefitting from a large south facing garden with parking to the rear the property provides an opportunity to create a lovely family home within an active village community.
