To locate: From our office in Fordingbridge turn right into Salisbury Street then left into Green Lane continuing into Whitsbury Road out of the town. At the top of the hill follow the road as it bears to the left and Fieldens will be located after a short distance on the right hand side.

The Avonside town of Fordingbridge lies on the western edge of the New Forest National Park. It offers a variety of independent shops and eateries, a building society, public library, churches of various denominations and a medical centre.

Infant, Junior and Secondary Schools are located on the northern edge of the town. The area is also served by a number of independent schools, including Forres Sandle Manor in nearby Sandleheath and Moyles Court School near Ringwood.

Transport links are good with the X3 bus service providing regular connections to Salisbury (11 miles north), which has a mainline railway station offering direct services to London Waterloo in approximately 1 hour 40 minutes. The service also connects to Ringwood (6 miles) and Bournemouth (18 miles). Road connections are equally convenient, with Junction 1 of the M27 accessible at Cadnam (approximately 10 miles via the B3078), and the port of Southampton located around 20 miles away.

Fieldens is a detached family home, believed to have been built in the 1960s and extended in more recent years. Constructed in a traditional style with rendered elevations beneath a tiled roof, the property offers well-arranged and versatile accommodation. Occupying an elevated position on the outskirts of Fordingbridge, Fieldens enjoys a generous garden plot that adjoins open farmland to the rear, creating a peaceful semi-rural setting. The property also benefits from a range of useful outbuildings, presenting an excellent opportunity to create a delightful family home in a desirable location.
