INTERNAL

This beautifully refurbished property features a modern aesthetic and a range of desirable amenities. It boasts two generous double bedrooms, perfect for relaxation or accommodating guests. The spacious lounge diner provides an inviting space for entertaining, seamlessly blending comfort and style. The fully refitted kitchen is equipped with space for appliances, ample storage and a handy breakfast bar making it a joy to cook in. The sleek bathroom has also been updated, providing a fresh and elegant feel. The property includes a spacious loft that is already equipped with plumbing and electrical connections, making it easy to convert into additional bedrooms, office, or bathroom. Additionally, the integral garage offers another versatile area that could also be transformed into further living space, potentially as a second living room, home gym, or studio.

EXTERNAL

From the entrance hall a door leads into the integral garage, providing a handy space for storage and in turn provides access to the private west-facing garden which offers a lovely outdoor retreat, ideal for enjoying evening sunsets. To the front the drive way provides off road parking.
