Introduction

(Guide price range £525,000 - £550,000) ROFFEYS RESIDENTIAL presents 'Helena Cottage', a fine Edwardian detached residence built circa 1902 and having a gross internal area of approximately 1112 sq.ft. (103 sq.m.). The property occupies an elevated position towards the brow of the hill in Honey Lane, providing far-reaching views from the main bedroom, while also being convenient for the well-regarded Leverton Primary School and the M25 interchange at junction 26.

On the first floor this comfortable home offers three bedrooms, two doubles plus a good-sized single, together with the modern family bathroom. To the ground floor an elegant entrance hall leads to the two reception rooms, each displaying an attractive fireplace. The rear reception room has access to a large kitchen / breakfast room with glazed doors offering views over the secluded rear garden. There is also a lean-to utility room with potential to incorporate a possible ground floor shower room. Throughout the home period features including skirtings and architraves, as well as high ceilings with coving and exposed timber floorboards have been retained.

At the side of the property there is a private passageway providing access to the property's secluded rear garden. The rear garden enjoys a southwest orientation and has a detached brick-built outbuilding to the far end. This outbuilding offers potential to upgrade for possible use as a home workspace or hobby room.
