£80,000 LEASEHOLD

A purpose built ground floor flat forming part of a retirement development and situated in a convenient location, just half a mile from the town centre and seafront.

Offered for sale with no on-going chain and with uPVC double glazing and electric night storage heating, is this purpose-built ground floor flat. A secure communal entrance with intercom to the property leads pass the house manager's office with an inner hallway leading to the flat itself. Once inside, an entrance hall has a useful storage cupboard. The sitting/dining room has a large window looking east with a view through to Salcombe Hill. The separate kitchen has a rear facing window and is fitted with modern units to include a built-in electric oven and two ring hob, with space for a fridge/freezer.

The double bedroom has an east facing window to the front aspect and a built in wardrobe. The bathroom has an electric shower over the bath, wash basin and WC.

Residents benefit from the use of attractive and enclosed communal gardens, situated to the rear of the building, comprising lawn, patio and well stocked flowerbeds. There is residents and visitor parking operating on a 'first come first served basis', with a further area of lawn garden and seating beyond. A guest suite is available for visiting friends and family at a reasonable rate and residents themselves can use guest suites in other developments around the country operated by the same freeholder.

Homemeadows House is situated in a convenient position on a regular bus route running along Temple Street. The Byes and River Sid are within short walking distance and the town centre and seafront are around half a mile away. Sidmouth is an unspoilt town on the Jurassic coastline, enjoying a busy town centre, with numerous independent shops, High Street chains and popular restaurants. Waitrose, Lidl and a modern doctors surgery are all within a mile and a half.
