POTBURY'S

40 York Street
Sidmouth,
EX10 8BY

£250,000 FREEHOLD

A town centre, corner terrace house informally arranged as two flats. Would suit cash investment or multigenerational living.

This two-storey house was informally converted some thirty years ago into two, one-bedroom flats. In the absence of leases, we strongly advise anyone requiring mortgage finance seek advice prior to viewing in order to avoid disappointment.

The ground floor comprises a sitting room with a bay window to the front aspect, a kitchen fitted with a good range of units and a utility room off. There is a double bedroom with built-in wardrobes and a bathroom fitted with a white suite. A gas combination boiler provides central heating and hot water and there are double glazed windows.

The first floor has a spacious sitting/dining room with two windows to the front aspect and a staircase leading to an attic room with eaves storage. Returning to the first floor landing, an inner hallway leads to the kitchen which is fitted with a good range of units and an electric oven (the hob has been disconnected as is condemned). There is a double bedroom with built-in wardrobes and a separate shower room. A gas boiler provides central heating and hot water and the windows are double glazed.

A utility room on the ground floor leads to a small rear yard which has pedestrian access from Russell Street. To the front a low wall and gate encloses a shallow area of garden with a raised flowerbed.

AGENTS NOTE The property has a flying freehold in as much as part of the neighbour's house on Russell Street 'flies over' the utility room of this property.

York Street is in the heart of the town centre within level walking distance of all amenities and the seafront. Parking permits are available for nearby car parks, whilst a private parking space can be rented from the local authority in the car park opposite the property.
