A beautifully presented detached house occupying a pleasant cul de sac location with fine views along Salcombe Hill.

Presented in superb order throughout and with gas central heating and double glazing is this detached house providing comfortable accommodation of around one thousand square feet. The entrance hall has a cloakroom/WC off and leads through to a light hallway with two storage cupboards. The kitchen/dining room is fitted with a good range of units, having a built-in oven and electric hob. There is space and plumbing for a washing machine and room for an American style fridge/freezer. A wall mounted gas boiler provides hot water and central heating. Patio doors open onto a decked terrace, taking in a fine easterly view to Salcombe Hill. The spacious sitting room is dual aspect and overlooks the front garden in a westerly direction.

The first floor landing has two, south facing Velux windows bringing good light to both the hallway and landing. The main bedroom is of a good size with two built in wardrobes and a west facing window to the front aspect. Bedroom two is also a good size double room with built in wardrobe and window to the rear, taking in a stunning view over the Sid Valley and along Salcombe Hill. Finally, the bathroom is fitted with a white suite, having a mains shower over the bath.

To the front of the property is a low maintenance gravel garden, driveway providing off road parking for three cars and leading to a single, detached garage with power, light, cold water tap and plumbing for a washing machine. To the rear of the house, the garden is again arranged with low maintenance in mind, featuring a decked patio, gravel and paved garden, enjoying a south easterly aspect. The garden is enclosed with a secure gate to the driveway.

The property stands in a cul de sac of similar houses, in a popular residential area, a short distance from The Byes and River Sid and regular bus services to the surrounding area. Waitrose is three quarters of a mile away on foot, the amenities at Sidford are less than half a mile away and the town centre and seafront with its busy High Street are less than two miles away. Sidmouth is an unspoilt town on the Jurassic Coast, benefitting from a wide range of amenities including numerous independent shops, High Street chains and popular restaurants.
