A charming, Grade II Listed, thatched cottage, presented in good order with modern kitchen and bathroom with gas central heating and a garden.

This attractive, semi-detached cottage has been the subject of much improvement by the present owners. Since 2021 the property has benefitted from a new kitchen, shower room, thatch ridge and refurbishment/replacement of the windows. The windows to the front elevation are all secondary glazed and the cottage has gas central heating.

The accommodation with approximate dimensions comprises:

Once inside, the entrance hall has a cloakroom/WC and leads into a good size sitting room with south facing aspect to the front and exposed ceiling beams. There is a separate dining room again with a south facing window and ceiling beams and to the rear of the cottage, a good size kitchen is fitted with a modern range of units, having a built-in washing machine, dishwasher, oven and electric hob. A rear lobby has a fridge/freezer and a door leads to the rear garden.

On the first floor, both bedrooms enjoy the south facing aspect to the front and both have a built in wardrobe. There is also a useful study/office. A modern shower room has a white suite comprising mains shower, WC and basin, with built in storage and attractively tiled walls and flooring.

The property has a shallow frontage and thatched porch onto the pavement, whilst to the rear is a good size, enclosed and low maintenance garden deep enough to see summer and winter sun. Parking is available on nearby roads such as Warrens Mead and Orchard Close or by way of a permit for the local car park, available from East Devon District Council.

The cottage is situated in a conservation area in the heart of Sidford, just a short walk from The Byes and River Sid. Sidford has a good range of amenities to include a Spar convenience store/post office, popular fish and chip shop, The Rising Sun and Blue Ball public houses, The Salty Monk restaurant and regular bus services in and out of Sidmouth. The town centre and seafront are just two miles away.
