Offered for sale with no on-going chain, a detached bungalow situated in a popular residential area close to bus routes and local amenities.

Parkside Drive is a well regarded residential area in Exmouth and is within a short drive of local shops and supermarkets whilst the town centre and seafront are approximately two miles away and offer an excellent range of facilities and services.

This detached bungalow occupies an almost level site with well tended, low maintenance gardens to both the front and rear. Some modernisation is now required, however, the bungalow features parquet flooring along with double glazed windows and gas central heating is installed, the boiler being positioned within the garage.

On entering the bungalow, an entrance porch has a personal door leading into the garage and opens into the reception hall which has a fitted coat and airing cupboard along with access to the roof space via a sliding ladder. The main living space comprises a lounge and adjoining dining room both enjoying a lovely south westerly aspect. The kitchen offers a range of fitted cupboards and worksurfaces, providing ample storage and has freestanding appliances comprising an electric cooker, washing machine and fridge/freezer. The kitchen also has a built-in larder and back door.

The two double bedrooms enjoy an outlook over the rear garden, the main bedroom having wardrobes to one wall and there is a separate shower room which has part tiled walls, a tiled floor and comprises a walk-in shower with fitted seat, WC and wash basin.

To the outside the gardens have been designed with an eye for ease of maintenance, with the front garden being mainly paved having an adjoining shrub border and to one side a driveway provides parking. Pathways to either side of the bungalow access the rear garden which is gravelled with adjoining shrub borders. The integral garage has an up and over door along with light and power, fitted shelving and access to a further loft space.
