DESCRIPTION

The farm buildings extend to circa 1710 sqm and comprise a range of buildings of substantial construction built of a mix of block, brick, steel and timber.

The site previously operated as an intensive pig farm and in more recent years has been used for smaller scale agriculture. The adjacent farmyard and associated areas are mainly concrete and compacted stone along with a now disused earth banked slurry lagoon.

The land is a mix of level and gently sloping arable land and part of which has excellent views towards open countryside to the north.

PLANNING/REDEVELOPMENT POTENTIAL

The property benefits from planning consent (ref. 22/00651/FUL) granted in April 2024 for a new improved point of access and track to serve the farm buildings and yard. This consent has not yet been implemented.

The buildings are considered to have potential for redevelopment to residential use under Class Q Permitted Development Rights or commercial uses under Class R Permitted Development Rights and subject to the necessary Prior Approval process. Such rights may be used to form a fall-back position for new build development in the alternative. A proportion of the land lies adjacent to the edge of the village and may have strategic development potential. Decisions on any planning application will be made in using the Development Plan and any other material considerations and buyers should make their own investigations.
