SITUATION
Comptonway is located on the outskirts of this sought after village, backing onto open fields, yet within walking distance of the village centre where a good range of independent shops can be found, together with the acclaimed Holm Restaurant and The Brewers Arms public house. Within the village is a church, primary school, village hall and arts centre, together with a modern medical centre and hospital. Barrington Court is just a short drive away, as is both Ilminster and Crewkerne, where a good range of day-to-day facilities can be found, together with a mainline rail link from Crewkerne to Exeter and London Waterloo.

DESCRIPTION
Comptonway was built in 1935 and is constructed principally of brick and contained beneath a tiled roof. In 1989 the property was extended to provide a large garage/workshop with bedroom and bathroom over. It benefits from double glazed windows and doors throughout, together with gas fired central heating. The property offers well proportioned rooms and includes extensive off road parking, useful range of outbuildings currently used as a gym and workshop/studio which are both fully insulated and is all set within delightful private gardens backing onto open fields and in all extending to approximately 0.38 acres.
