DESCRIPTION

Believed to date back to 1740, Ivy Cottage features brick and stone elevations beneath a traditional thatched roof. A single-storey extension at the rear, originally designed as a ground floor bedroom, is currently used as a dining room. The property is rich in character, showcasing exposed beams, window seats, and leaded windows. Heating is provided via bottled LPG gas.

The property is approached via a spacious block-paved driveway, leading to a former double garage, now converted into a generous workshop with cloakroom, storage, and shower room, along with a versatile first-floor studio/home office above. The house is complemented by attractive gardens and backs onto open fields, with a raised sun deck providing delightful views across the surrounding countryside.

ACCOMMODATION

An oak front door opens into the welcoming hallway with tiled flooring, front-facing window, useful storage cupboard and coat hooks. From here, a door leads to the sitting room, while an opening flows into the kitchen.

The kitchen is well fitted and comprises a 1¼ bowl single drainer sink unit with mixer tap, adjoining worktops with a range of floor and wall-mounted cupboards and drawers, a five-burner LPG gas hob with extractor hood, electric oven and grill, plus space and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer. The Worcester LPG boiler is also located here. Enjoying dual-aspect views, the kitchen features tiled flooring throughout and a door to the side.

The sitting room enjoys a front aspect with window seat and a staircase rising to the first floor. Character features include exposed beams and a fireplace housing an LPG stove, with display shelving and tiled flooring. The room opens into a thoughtfully designed extension, originally created as a ground-floor bedroom but now used as a spacious dining room. This room benefits from dual-aspect views, glazed French doors to the side, and an alcove study area screened by bi-fold oak doors.

Adjoining is a cloakroom with fully tiled floor and walls, vanity unit and low-level WC, along with a shower room, again fully tiled and fitted with a shower, wash hand basin and heated towel rail.

On the first floor, the landing features a leaded window to the front. Bedroom One is a stunning room with a high vaulted ceiling, exposed beams, leaded side window, and stairs rising to a mezzanine study/dressing area, again with exposed beams. Bedroom Two also enjoys a leaded side window. The first-floor shower room is fully tiled, comprising a shower cubicle, low-level WC, vanity unit and heated towel rail.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached via a block-paved driveway, secured by double timber gates and providing parking for five to six vehicles. To one side is a useful bin storage area, together with access to the former double garage, now adapted to offer versatile accommodation. The ground floor features a cloakroom with adjoining storage and shower, as well as a spacious workshop with concrete flooring, shelving, power, lighting and a side window. A paddle staircase rises to a first-floor studio/office, fitted with glazed French doors opening onto the rear garden, a Velux roof light, single drainer stainless steel sink with mixer tap, adjoining worktops with cupboards beneath, and additional eaves storage.

A block-paved pathway continues around to the rear of the property and towards the far side, where a paved sun terrace is enclosed by stone retaining walls with concealed gas bottles. Steps lead up to a gravelled area, beyond which lies a well-fenced upper lawn, attractively stocked with shrubs, bushes and trees. At the far end of the garden, further steps ascend to a raised decking area, offering delightful panoramic views across the surrounding countryside.
