Occupying a larger than average plot including magnificent gardens with fabulous elevated views and forming part of Kildwick Grange, a highly regarded enclave of dissimilar period properties, this individual barn conversion extends to approximately 2350 sq ft of versatile 4/5 bed roomed family accommodation containing an abundance of lovely original features throughout.

The layout lends itself well to a variety of purchasers, briefly including: a farmhouse style Dining Kitchen, Utility & Cloakroom, a fabulous open plan Living Room & Dining Area (with standout features being an Inglenook fireplace and barn door window), a large Study or optional 5th Bedroom and a Garden Room on the west side. The first floor provides 3 or 4 Bedrooms (one is currently used as a Sitting Room), an En-Suite and a luxury House Bathroom, all being configured around an impressive vaulted gallery landing with exposed beams & roof trusses.

Kildwick is a very well respected village known for boasting enviable southerly views across the valley and having an excellent primary school, the recently re-opened White Lion pub & popular rural walks virtually on the doorstep; also being well connected via train stations in nearby Cononley or Steeton with excellent links to the larger towns & cities of Skipton, Keighley, Leeds & Bradford.

Approached via a cobbled driveway providing excellent parking, closer inspection is strongly advised, with the accommodation in more detail comprising:
