Recently the subject of comprehensive modernisation to the highest standard of finish, this detached bungalow now provides picture perfect accommodation with the standout feature being a fantastic open plan Living Room, Kitchen & Dining Area complemented by 2 Double Bedrooms, a stylish Shower Room, a Utility and a Boot Room with w.c; the whole being served by underfloor heating and a host of other high quality extras (please see specification).

The property occupies a larger than average plot including a superb block paved driveway, flagged outdoor kitchen area covered by a pergola with an opening roof, generous lawns and a useful timber shed with mains power. Other external features include solar panels, power points, main gas heating, remote control lighting, CCTV and a security alarm system.

Ings Drive is a highly regarded area in the popular village of Bradley, a small semi-rural community nestled just outside Skipton, known for having a well respected primary school, a friendly pub and lovely walks along the Leeds Liverpool canal.

The bungalow is offered with no forward chain and is highly recommended for closer inspection to appreciate the quality & attention to detail.
