Property Overview

Originally built as three cottages dating back to circa 1620, but many years later redesigned to create a substantial four bedroom detached residence, this quite unique and characterful Grade 11 listed period home stands on a wonderful south facing 0.37 acre plot, which backs onto and enjoys stunning countryside views.

The property is located in the tranquil and picturesque village of Ridge, which is nestled between Potters Bar, Shenley and Radlett.

Set back around 60ft from the road and with a 95ft wide frontage, the sweeping gravelled carriage driveway provides plenty of parking, as well as having a detached double garage.

The accommodation includes an L shaped living and dining room, a further reception room which features a brick-built "inglenook" fireplace, a conservatory, a small study, the breakfast room has steps down to the kitchen, a utility room and a guest cloakroom. To the first floor there is a principal bedroom with an en-suite shower, three further bedrooms (one of which is currently used as a dressing room) and a family bathroom which is fitted with a walk-in shower and underfloor heating.
