£1,350,000 Freehold

Measuring an impressive 2,090 sq. ft, this very large five bedroom mid-terraced family home has been maintained to an excellent standard throughout, boasting excellent proportions and a secluded private garden.

The property is arranged over three floors and benefits from bright and spacious internal accommodation, flexible living and plenty of storage space.

The ground floor comprises of an incredibly spacious double reception room with bay window, stunning period cast iron fireplace, exposed wooden floorboards and high ceilings. Leading on to the rear of the property there is a large Kitchen diner that has plenty of potential to extend and create more space (STPP). The lower ground floor level also offers plenty of scope to further develop, or to simply use as an extra living area.

The upper floors consist of a further five double bedrooms, one of which was a recent well crafted loft extension adding substantially more square footage to the property. There are also two, three piece family bathrooms and eaves storage on the second floor.

Prince George road is a tree-lined residential street, just a short walk from vibrant Dalston and eclectic Church Street. Connections into the City and Central London couldn't be easier, with the numerous bus links that run along Stokeley High Street all readily available, and both Dalston Junction (Overground) and Dalston Kingsland (Overground) being just a short walk away. Butterfield Green is at the bottom of the street, making a popular picnic spot in the warmer months, and the charming array of independent coffee shops and eateries on Allen Road is close by, too.
