£900,000 Leasehold - Share of Freehold

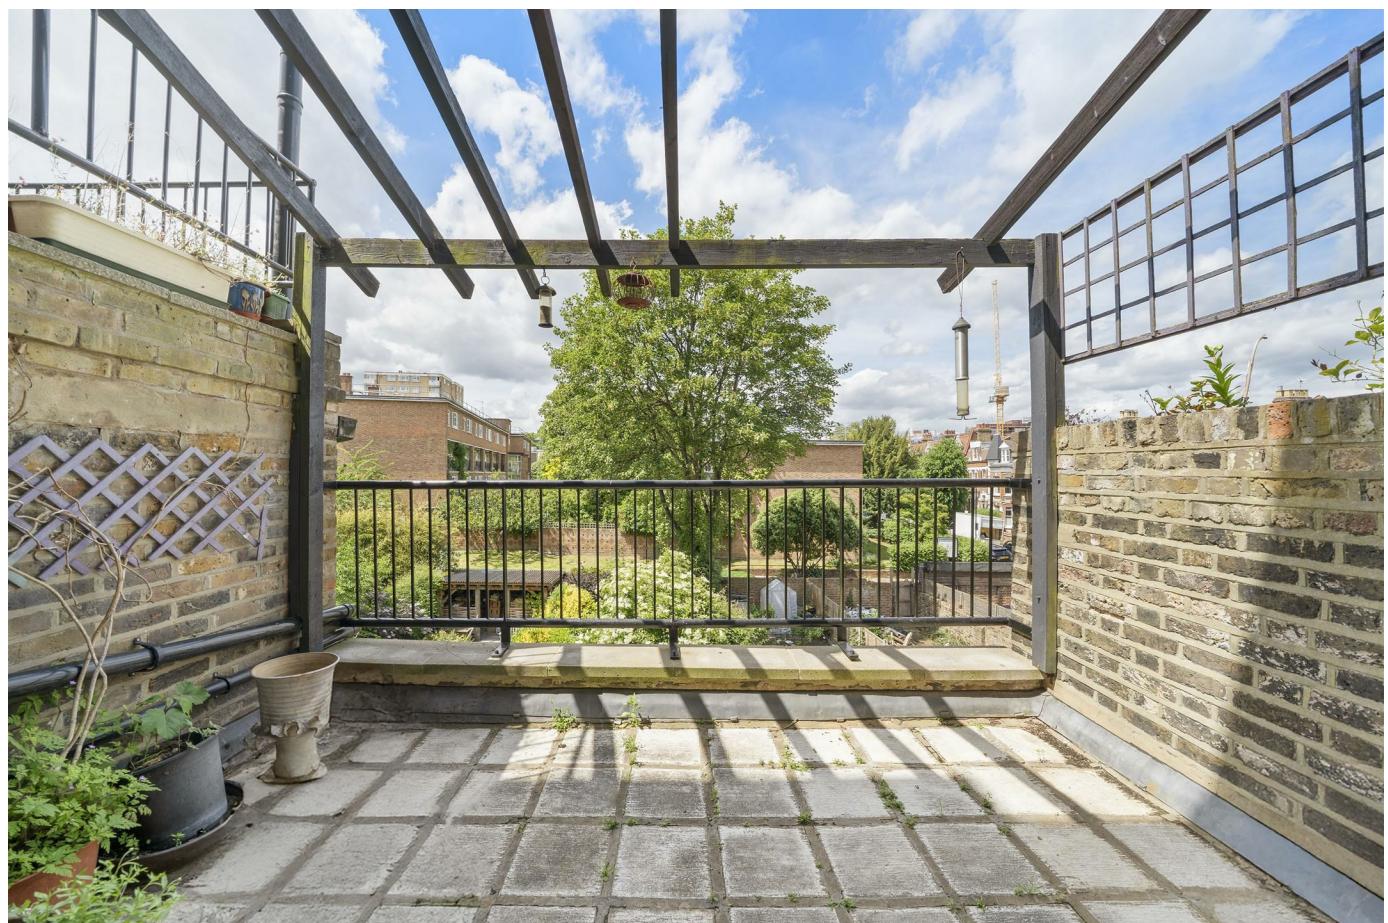

Occupying the top two floors of an attractive and well-maintained Victorian house, this generously sized three-bedroom split-level flat offers 1,285 sq ft of versatile living space, combining period charm with practical layout and excellent proportions throughout.

The accommodation comprises three well-sized double bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a separate study—ideal for those working from home, in need of guest accommodation, or simply looking for additional space. The layout is thoughtfully arranged to offer both privacy and sociable living areas, making it well-suited to families, sharers, or professional couples alike.

One of the standout features of this home is the large separate kitchen-diner, offering a bright and spacious environment for everyday dining or entertaining guests. The 19ft reception room adds further appeal, providing a comfortable and generous space for relaxing and hosting, with elevated views and plenty of natural light.

Adding to the appeal are two private roof terraces, offering valuable outdoor space that is seldom found in similar period conversions. Whether used for morning coffee, summer evenings, or container gardening, these terraces provide a welcome extension of the living space.

The property is presented in good order throughout and benefits from a share of the freehold, yet still offers excellent potential for a new owner to update and style to their own preferences. This creates a
