Location

Straddling the A7, the village of Stow is well placed for the commuter, approximately 25 miles away from Edinburgh city centre and within easy reach of the central Borders town of Galashiels, as well as many of the other towns and villages within the region. The village enjoys an active community life and offers facilities such as a village store/post office, bowling green, park, play group, modern health centre, town hall, multi-sports court and a primary school, whilst a wider range of shopping and recreational amenities, as well as secondary schooling, is on hand in Galashiels. The village has the undoubted benefit of a railway station on the Waverley line between Tweedbank and Edinburgh.
