Welcome

An impressive FRONT DOOR leads you into the ENTRANCE HALL with a quarry tiled floor and doorway leading through to the REAR PORCH.

The entrance hall has part panelled walls and leads to an INNER HALLWAY with stairs to the first floor.

Situated off is one of the reception rooms with its leaded light window, window seat and a glorious view across the front garden. A brick chimney breast with Jotul wood stove adds a superb focal point.

Step into the KITCHEN/DINING ROOM, which serves as the heart of this home. This space offers country charm with a freestanding kitchen.

A Butler's sink with grooved timber work surface sits to one side as well as a beautiful fireplace set with a cast iron multi-fuel stove offering cooking and heat. A multi paned window to the front elevation and exposed timber beams all add to the overall charm of this lovely space.

Head through the side passageway into the second reception room with its impressive fire place with timber bressummer and granite surround together with a Villager cast iron wood burner set on a raised hearth. The exposed timber beams and multi paned window to the front complete this room beautifully.

Four BEDROOMS sit to the first floor, each with its own unique charm and character.

Enjoy the views, showcasing the surrounding garden and countryside, and the open moorland beyond.

The FAMILY BATHROOM sits to the ground floor, situated off the inner hall. Fitted with a claw footed steel bath, WC and circular bowl set onto a wash stand. A modestly glazed window opens to the side elevation.

The gardens are beautiful and attract a great variety of wildlife as well as offering a quiet place to sit and enjoy your slice of Dartmoor.

Outside

Outside, a charming "cottage-style" garden awaits, offering a space away from the hustle and bustle of life. Enclosed by stone walling and a timber gate. The gently sloping garden is partly laid to lawn with herb beds and flowering bed borders. Immediately adjacent to the rear of the house is a right of access to the rear lane as well as a gardeners toilet and storage space.

To the rear is an away garden and orchard accessed across a shared track and enclosed by low level stone wall with mature trees and hedgerow along one side. Planted here are various fruit trees and a superb BARN/WORKSHOP/STUDIO with additional lean-to storage.

North Harton Cottage is set in an elevated position close to Lustleigh Cleave. It is in a secluded and private setting off a shared private driveway and well off the public road.

This wonderful rural location gives unrivalled opportunities for outdoor recreation but remains accessible to everyday amenities. The village of Lustleigh is approximately 2.5 miles away. Lustleigh is often described as one of the prettiest villages on Dartmoor, with beautiful thatched cottages and winding lanes. St. John's church and The Cleave, a popular pub set in a 15th-century thatched building, are at the very heart of the village. There is also a superb general store and post office known as The Dairy, a tea room, village hall, preschool and a community orchard with a playground. The village, situated in the heart of the Wrey Valley, has long been a popular hotspot for walkers and those who are seeking a quintessentially British village.

Within a 15-minute drive are the local market towns of Bovey Tracey and Moretonhampstead for daily essentials. With its antique shops, cafes, artisan bakery and award-winning fishmongers, Ashburton is also close at hand. Historic market towns of Chagford and Totnes are a 20 and 40-minute drive, respectively, both with a range of independent shops, stores and markets.

Despite its rural position, Lustleigh is readily reached by road. The A38, also known as the Devon Expressway, is a short drive away and provides good access to Exeter in addition to connecting to the A30 and the M5. Newton Abbot is situated on the Great Western railway offering access to London Paddington with a journey time of just over two and a half hours, calling at Reading, Taunton and Exeter. There is also a regular service to Bristol.
