£285,000

Hunters are delighted to welcome to the markets this detached property with no onward chain. The property is in good condition and presents a perfect opportunity for families. It boasts 4 bedrooms, three reception rooms, a dining space in the kitchen, and three bathrooms.

The property has an EPC rating of C and is in Council Tax Band D. It also comes with an internal garage and parking space for two cars. The ample exterior space is just as inviting, with a large garden featuring both grass and a patio at the rear.

Located in an area with convenient public transport links, this property offers the tranquility of a quiet neighbourhood and the charm of nearby walking routes.

The master bedroom is a highlight, complete with an en-suite bathroom and built-in wardrobes. Bedroom two and three are generous double rooms, and the fourth bedroom is a comfortable single room.

The bathrooms won't disappoint either. The newly refurbished main bathroom exudes modernity while downstairs, a convenient WC can be found. The third bathroom is an en-suite belonging to the master bedroom.

The kitchen is a lovely space, equipped with dining facilities. The reception rooms each have their unique charm. The first one features a classic bay window, the second one serves as a formal dining room and the final one is a relaxing conservatory with access to the garden.
