Asking Price £324,950

Presenting for sale, an immaculate, detached bungalow located on the outskirts of Medomsley, a highly sought-after village. This well-proportioned property, with its unique features, is an ideal haven for couples and families alike.

The bungalow boasts two spacious reception rooms, each with separate access and large bright windows that invite plenty of natural light into the space. The second reception room enjoys a lovely view of the garden and offers direct access to it, providing a seamless blend of indoor and outdoor living.

The property features two double bedrooms, each fitted with convenient built-in wardrobes. The newly fitted modern kitchen with integrated appliances, illuminated by an abundance of natural light, making it a pleasant space to enjoy.

This property's exterior is as impressive as its interior. It offers ample parking spaces for several vehicles and the convenience of a single, detached garage. The South facing garden is a major highlight, and is a fantastic place to enjoy secluded outdoor living and socialising.

This bungalow is ideal for country living whilst also offering close proximity to local amenities, green spaces, walking and cycling routes which enhances its appeal, offering a comfortable and serene living environment. The practical layout, combined with its desirable location, ensures this property is a brilliant choice for those seeking a balance of tranquility and convenience. It's not just a house; it's a lifestyle.
