Stonehaven, Summerhouse, Darlington, DL2 3UD

Dating back to 1896 and having been brought right up to date with modern technology and efficiency the converted Chapel offers the very best of both worlds. The instant kerb appeal and character of the property is sure to appeal to those looking for a unique home in ready to move into order.

The current vendors have paid excellent attention to detail during the refurbishment, being sympathetic to the origins of the home whilst introducing modern fittings and stylish decor. The accommodation is light and bright and flows perfectly from the welcoming hallway with the impressive Oak balustrade, to the generous lounge with a log burning stove and reclaimed stone mantel.

The kitchen, dining and living area is to the rear of the property and boasts unspoilt views over the rear garden and countryside beyond to lose yourself in.

The kitchen has been well planned and designed to the highest specification with a modern range of cabinets, centre island all complimented with a stunning Dekton worktop and a host of integrated appliances. The rear of the property has a full picture window and French doors leading to the patio to the rear. A door from the kitchen has convenience access to the garage. A handy utility room and cloaks/wc is a must in any home and completes the accommodation to the ground floor.

To the first floor there are three, very well proportioned double bedrooms all serviced by a statement four piece bathroom with clawfoot bath and separate shower. There is concealed access to a fixed staircase that leads up to the attic area which provide storage but could be converted to provide space for an office area. Externally there is an enclosed forecourt to the front. There is access to the larger than average garage. The rear garden is of a good size and is enclosed by original and weathered grey stone walls and is mainly laid to lawn. Split into two separate areas, with a lawned area edged by established borders and original outbuildings and Indian sandstone patio and paving. A single gate leads through to a further enclosed grassed area with stone built buildings and vehicular access.

The picturesque views beyond the boundary across the Raby Estate are breath-taking, and can be enjoyed throughout the seasons. The out buildings offer the exciting potential to convert into further accommodation given the trend for home bars, games rooms or home office. The property itself has renewed floors with under floor heating to the ground floor. The walls have been insulated, and the property is warmed by Air source pump heating. Re-Wired & Re-plumbed throughout and having internet points to all rooms.

The position on the village green at Summerhouse is ideally placed for transport links to Darlington & Staindrop. A local bus service is still in operation and there are many country walks. The village has its own village hall and is an intimate and vibrant community one which has always proved popular with home buyers.

The main bathroom has a lovely cast iron roll top bath to add a statement and character matching that of the reclaimed vanity cabinet which has the handbasin inset.

EXTERNALLY

The property has a paved forecourt with a established holly tree and vibrant yellow kerria bush to add interest. There is access at the side to a larger than average garage which has an electric roller door, light and power and a convenient personnel door to the rear and also handy access into the kitchen.

The access lane leads past the garage and allows for vehicular access to the rear of the property. The grounds to the rear are of a good size and offer various areas of potential and use. The main garden of the home is enclosed by the original stone wall and has been landscaped with Indian Sandstone patio area and pathways. This garden is mainly laid to lawn with slate chipping to the borders, there is access to one of the outbuildings from this garden. A single gate to the rear leads through to a further walled garden, which runs the length of the property boundary and down the side towards the access point and passed the original stone built byres. The byres themselves are currently used for storage and do require some attention but offer an exciting opportunity to restore and upgrade and incorporate into the accommodation as a home office, gym, garden bar or summerhouse.

And then finally, the view to the rear is yours to enjoy, the unspoilt vista belongs to the Raby Estate and offers beautiful scenery and countryside walks to explore. The property really does offer the best of both worlds, modern design and finish partnering perfectly with the original character of the building. The countryside setting to enjoy whilst having the convenience of the ease of access to town. Viewing is highly recommended.
