Description

2 Stocks Fields comprises an appealing freehold, semi-detached country cottage in a lovely rural location with super views over adjoining farmland within the Wiston Estate and to the South Downs and including to Chanctonbury Ring. The cottage is set within a good size South facing garden with timber framed shed/workshop. The property is approached by a gravelled driveway off Spithandle Lane with parking for several cars and leading to the detached garage which has power and water.

The garden includes an area of grass with a beautiful, mature magnolia tree, acer and a variety of other mature plants and shrubs. The cottage benefits from double glazing throughout and is considered to offer good potential for further extension, subject to all necessary consents.

The well-presented accommodation is spread over two floors. To the ground floor, there is a downstairs cloakroom and which houses the Oil boiler, and then through to the large country style kitchen with wooden work tops, fitted cupboards, electric 5-ring Rangemaster cooker, integrated appliances and with space for a dining table and an area for utilities and then leading to the South facing sitting room with log burner to the fireplace and which in turn opens into the dining area with doors out to the garden.

To the first floor there are three double bedrooms and family bathroom comprising a modern suite with bath with shower over, w.c. and basin. The principal bedroom includes large built-in wardrobe and along with Bedroom 2 is South facing with super Downland views. Bedroom 3 faces West and also benefits from a large built-in wardrobe and views.

Location

2 Stocks Fields is situated to the Western end of Spithandle Lane which links Wiston to the B2135 road to Ashurst in the East and to Hole Street to the West. Hole Street links with the A283 to the South and Ashington village to the North-West. Nearby is the historic Bunton Chapel and with The Wiston Meeting Room with its occasional pop-up pub a short walk away. The nearest shopping facilities are at Ashington, approx. 1.5 miles which includes a range of local facilities with late-opening convenience store, popular Red Lion public house with restaurant, a separate Indian restaurant and the historic parish church of St. Peter & St. Paul and Ashington C of E Primary School.

More extensive facilities can be found at the old market town of Steyning with its fine range of period houses and buildings of historic interest approx. 3.5 miles to the South-East, and offering a good range of local shops, public houses, restaurants, sports centre with swimming pool and library.

The surrounding area to the property is rural, yet extremely convenient for all mains routes, the A24 linking Worthing to the South, approx. 10 miles, and Horsham to the North approx. 12 miles. The A24 also provides dual carriageway connections to the A27/M27 coastal route to the South and the M23 to Crawley and Gatwick Airport approx. 30 miles.

There are extensive walks available from the doorstep over beautiful neighbouring countryside.
