Description

Granary Barn comprises a beautifully presented detached granary conversion set in a fine rural position on the edge of the Downs Link in a small cluster of rural conversions and houses and enjoying panoramic views to the South Downs and being within 2 miles of Steyning. The Granary comprises light and airy semi open plan ground floor living accommodation including entrance lobby with cloakroom off thence leading into a living/dining room with part tiled and part carpeted floor with wood burning stove to one corner and French doors to the terrace and garden, part exposed timbers, semi separated corner snug. Thence linking to the kitchen with its range of fitted wall units including worktops with cupboards and drawers integrated dishwasher and LPG range cooker with extractor over, 1½ bowl sink. Door to rear hall/utility with further range of fitted cupboards and oil-fired boiler and point for washing machine, door to outside. The semi open plan living accommodation faces West, East and South.

Approached from the living area, fine spiral staircase rising to first floor study area with part glazed screen part overlooking the kitchen and then with doors including to the super main bedroom with Juliet balcony facing East to the expansive views and morning light, fitted wardrobes and drawers, en-suite shower room and mezzanine storage area over part of bedroom. Second en-suite double bedroom also with good views and side storage recess.

Outside, the driveway is understood to include completed footings (and as acknowledged by Building Control) for the previously consented (ref DC/15/0815) single storey extension and extracts of drawings of which are appended, and which include weather-boarded and tiled external elevations with a glazed linkway/entrance hall from the Granary to the ground floor accommodation and with additional bedroom, living room/further bedroom, bathroom and study.

To the South side of the Granary is a smart sundeck plus summer house and side terrace and shed bordering the neighbouring brook. The main lawned garden lies on the East side of the house and is a good size with sensational open views.

Across the lane/Downs link are two adjoining land parcels divided by the meandering brook and with separate gated access points off the lane. The main part to the North side lies on free-draining greensand soil and includes a further parking area and side vegetable garden with drive in-between the fenced paddocks and leading to a smart stable block with 3 boxes, feed and fodder stores with associated hard standing, power and light. To one side is large workshop also enjoying the extensive views from its side windows. To the South of the brook and with separate access off the lane is the further area of pasture land with small field shelter. The property as a whole extends to approximately 2.61 acres (1.06 Ha).

Location

The property occupies a desirable rural location within 2 miles of the old market town of Steyning with its extensive range of shops, trades and facilities as well as schools for all ages groups. More extensive facilities can be found on the coast at Worthing within circa 10.5 miles and at the cosmopolitan city of Brighton within 15 miles. Shoreham-by-sea also with a good range of facilities, small harbour, airport and railway station is 6.5 miles, whilst Horsham and Haywards Heath are c.18.25 miles and c. 19.5 miles respectively. Road connections are good in the local area and with the A23/M23 heading North including access to Gatwick airport (c. 35.25 miles) and thence to the M25.

There are a good range of both state and independent schools for all ages groups in the area. There are also a good range of local footpaths in the area as well as riding along the Downs link and then interconnecting to other bridleways and footpaths.
