Description

Iron Stone Barn comprises an appealing conversion of a detached traditional rural outbuilding, subsequently extended, with a mixture of brick and weatherboarded elevations under a pitched and clay tiled roof to the principal part with slate to part and with double glazed windows. In addition, there is the separate detached workshop/studio barn offering good potential, subject to all consents.

The accommodation of character is spread over two floors with a particular feature being the later addition South facing garden/sitting room with tiled floor, part exposed oak framing, part vaulted roof with roof lantern and bi-fold doors to the courtyard garden area with barbeque area. To the side of the garden room is double bedroom 3 with exposed oak framing and nearby shower room. The large living room includes a double-sided woodburning stove and stairs to the first floor. The good size double aspect kitchen/breakfast room with range of fitted units including Belfast sink, integrated hob with extractor, double oven and microwave, point for dishwasher, tiled floor, part vaulted ceiling and French doors leading out to the main area of garden plus door to side hall/utility area. To the first floor, part vaulted landing with doors to two double bedrooms also with part vaulted roofs and, to the main bedroom, fitted wardrobes and pretty outlook to the North-West over adjoining countryside. Family bathroom.

A particular feature of the property is the adaptable detached traditional outbuilding with its corrugated clad external elevations including lean-to the North side with lock-up workshop and then the two-storey barn including external access to the first-floor studio/workshop and ground floor South facing studio space with kitchenette area and cloakroom off. Adjacent to this building is the former pigsties and with the landscaped part divided garden areas thence leading down to the gravel drive with parking for several vehicles. The property as a whole extends to c.0.44 of an acre.

Location

The Barn occupies an accessible semi-rural location off Rock Road which interconnects from the A24 to the back of Storrington village which is within 2.5 miles and offers a comprehensive range of local facilities and including Waitrose supermarket. The old market town of Steyning is approximately 6 miles to the East whilst more comprehensive facilities may be found at Worthing (c.10.5 miles) and the coast to the South or in the large old market town of Horsham to the North (c. 12 miles) and along with Worthing offers a mainline railway station. The cosmopolitan coastal city of Brighton with its wide range of shops, entertainment and other facilities is within 17.5 miles, whilst Gatwick Airport is c. 27.25 miles distant.
