Description

This charming mid-terrace Victorian home is tucked away in the heart of Steyning, offering picturesque rooftop views of the town. Located on Hillside Terrace, this property is part of a quaint row of similar homes, all within walking distance to the High Street. The two-storey accommodation boasts distant views of the Downs and historic rooftops from upper windows. The cozy living room features a fireplace and overlooks the private garden, while the dining room offers under-stair storage.

The separate kitchen has a double aspect design and a door leading to the rear garden. Upstairs, you'll find two double bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a versatile small room that has been used as a nursery, office, or dressing room.

The property's original features are complemented by modern conveniences like gas-fired central heating and double glazing. The lovely front and rear cottage gardens add to the home's charm. A detached garage and off-street parking provide convenient storage and parking options.

Location

What 3 Words ///spectacle.online.airfields

Hillside Terrace is tucked away off Castle Lane in the center of Steyning. Access is via a private road edged with garages with the houses hidden behind. The property is a short walk from the High Street due to a path that leads onto College Hill which has a diverse range of traditional local shops, trades and services and lies at the edge of the South Downs National Park. Steyning boasts a health and sports centre with swimming pool, other community facilities including a wide range of societies and organisations and schools for all age groups. Footpaths leading to open countryside and the South Downs, including the famous South Downs Way, are also within convenient distance of the property.
