Yew Tree Cottage

Haywards Heath Road, Balcombe,
RH17 6NF

£595,000

Yew Tree Cottage is a charming detached 17th century Grade II listed period cottage in a highly desirable village location. This delightful home has been sympathetically refurbished throughout retaining many features of the era including a wealth of exposed wall and ceiling timbers, an inglenook fireplace and latched internal doors. The accommodation is principally arranged over three floors, has the benefit of gas central heating and incorporates a splendid sitting/dining room with inglenook and multi-fuel burning stove, fitted kitchen, 3 bedrooms plus a home office/dressing room and a period style bathroom with roll top bath and traditional low level wc. There is a delightful south west facing rear garden extending to about 62 feet in length arranged mainly as level lawn with brick courtyard and pathways incorporating a large Victorian style greenhouse with adjacent potting shed.

Situated in the most sought after village of Balcombe within walking distance to the mainline station offering a fast service to central London (London Bridge 40 minutes). Balcombe is a vibrant and thriving community offering a village hall with social club, a village owned pub, a shop, tea room, bowling green, cricket ground, historic parish church, well regarded primary school and nursery. The village lies within an area of outstanding natural beauty offering a wonderful natural venue for countryside walking. Haywards Heath lies 5 miles to the south with its wide range of shops, leisure facilities, restaurants, Sainsbury's and Waitrose superstores. The towns of Horsham (11 miles) and Crawley (7 miles) are within easy reach and the M23 (junction 10a) is just 3.5 miles distant providing direct access to the motorway network and Gatwick Airport (8.6 miles).
