Mytten Cottage, Mytten Twitten

High Street, Cuckfield, RH17 5EN

Guide Price £875,000 Freehold

A truly enchanting 3 bedroom detached period cottage, believed to date from circa 1792, tucked away in a secluded yet central location just off Cuckfield's picturesque High Street. Occupying circa 0.2 acres of garden, this unique home offers beautifully sunny landscaped gardens, exceptional privacy and a wealth of character throughout. Sympathetically renovated and extended, the accommodation spans approximately 1,090 sq. ft. over three floors. Features include a charming sitting room with Inglenook fireplace and bay windows, a vaulted kitchen/dining room with Rayburn and patio doors to the garden and a ground floor bathroom with Victorian style suite. Upstairs offers two bedrooms (one currently a dressing room with fitted storage), a separate WC and a third bedroom in the loft enjoying far reaching views across the village to the South Downs. In addition, there have been extensive updates since 2022 which include redecoration, waterproofing, repairs to roof and chimney, updated electrics, new porch, new dressing room and significant landscaping. Outside, the stunning east and south facing garden, shaped with input from a Chelsea Flower Show exhibitor, comprise rolling lawns, mature trees, vibrant borders, fruit and vegetable plots, a greenhouse and a tree house. A range of versatile outbuildings includes a double aspect garden studio (14'4 x 11'4), a fully fitted shepherd's hut (11'6 x 6'3) with wood burner, tool store and twin-bay log store. A private pedestrian gate gives access from the Twitten to the front and side gardens. Internal viewings highly recommended.

Tucked away along the charming Mytten Twitten, Mytten Cottage enjoys a peaceful yet exceptionally convenient position just moments from Cuckfield's picturesque High Street. A short stroll brings you to a selection of local shops, cafes, and everyday amenities, while highly regarded schools including Holy Trinity Primary and Warden Park Academy are close by. Haywards Heath station (approx. 1.6 miles) offers fast links to London and Brighton, with easy road access to the A23, Gatwick and the south coast plus direct bus routes from the High Street to the station as well as Brighton.
