Guide Price £450,000 Freehold

This charming Victorian semi detached home offers a wonderful blend of character and modern convenience, with scope to further extend (STPP). The accommodation comprises a sweet sitting room with a bay window and feature fireplace, a spacious dining/living room with patio doors leading to the garden, and an extended modern kitchen boasting quaint details and a rear door for added practicality. Upstairs are two well-proportioned bedrooms and a large family bathroom. Externally, the property benefits from a long private garden, mainly laid to lawn with an attractive terrace adjacent to the house, a useful shed, and a variety of established shrubs and trees. To the front, there is off-road parking. Offered with no ongoing chain, this home presents an excellent opportunity to acquire a delightful period property with character, outdoor space, and potential to grow.

Situated in this much favoured mature central location just a short walk to the town centre with its wide range of shops, the Broadway with its array of restaurants and Victoria Park with its tennis courts. Haywards Heath mainline railway station is close at hand offering a fast and frequent service to central London (Victoria/London Bridge 42-45 minutes) and the town has a modern leisure complex, a Waitrose and Sainsbury's superstore and there are several well regarded schools in the locality catering for all age groups. The A23 lies about 5 miles to the west providing a direct route to the motorway network, Gatwick Airport is 14.5 miles to the north, the cosmopolitan city of Brighton and the coast is a similar distance to the south. The South Downs National Park and Ashdown Forest are within a short drive offering a beautiful natural venue for countryside walks.
