WHY WE LOVE THIS HOUSE...

'We love this house not only because of its chocolate box looks and attractive, character filled interior but also because it has been a very happy family home at the heart of the community for many years, seconds walk from the welcoming and fun village pub. This house is pretty all year round with different flowers and fruits appearing throughout the seasons in the cottage garden and at Christmas the cottage really comes into its own with cosy log fire, twinkly lights and a very festive street scene outside. It really does make the most perfect festive cottage ready to greet and welcome its guests and is within walking distance from the village church and their wonderful live nativity. A beautiful and very special home which also benefits from a large drive so all the family can visit.'
