Quite simply one of the most beautifully presented and sympathetically renovated properties we have seen in recent years. Stripped back to its bare bones by the current owners and painstakingly refurbished to a standard rarely seen in the current market, with its period styling and inherent charm blending perfectly with some delightful contemporary twists. Centrally located, in this historic village, once frequented by Dick Turpin himself, the property is blessed with some of the most beautiful views the area has to offer. The accommodation now comprises an attractive entrance hallway with replica Minton tiled floor, sumptuous living room with bespoke display shelving, a showpiece kitchen diner and family room with access to the rear garden and an opulent ground floor bathroom. The first floor boasts three bedrooms and a contemporary en suite shower room with delightful views to the rear. There is also a spacious loft that the current owners have considered converting. Externally the property benefits from a neat block paved private driveway to the front and side with vehicular access to the rear. There is an extensive rear garden with two large patio seating areas, neat lawn and stylishly planted borders. All taking full advantage of 'those views'.

Offered for sale with no onward chain, this property really does need to be viewed to appreciate its exceptional nature.
