ESTATE AGENCY

34 Main Street, Whittington Lichfield WS14 9JS £650,000

A rare opportunity to acquire a delightful three bedroom detached dormer bungalow, occupying one of the most central locations, facing on to two of the most coveted roads within this popular Staffordshire village. Offered for sale with no onward chain and sitting centrally in beautifully manicured gardens on the corner of Main Street and The Green, conveniently located for the wealth of amenities the village proudly boasts. Falling within the Whittington Primary and King Edward's catchment areas, the flexible accommodation extends to over 1,500 sq.ft and still offers purchasers with a wealth of future potential options. Currently offering two bedrooms with fitted wardrobes, elegant landing and large family bathroom on the first floor and an extensive ground floor boasting: entrance hallway, kitchen, breakfast room, living room, dining room, ground floor bedroom or sitting room, wet room and utility. Further treats lie outside with the most delightfully presented, mature gardens surrounding the house. A private driveway offering parking for numerous vehicles, an integral double garage with electric roller door and a secure carport also with electric roller door. A particularly desirable attribute is the high levels of privacy in the rear garden.

Viewing is essential to appreciate the exciting opportunity on offer and its unrivalled position within the King Edward's catchment area.
