BOND & SHERWILL

Brighton Road, Hooley

Located just moments from the M23/M25 interchange, this two-bedroom detached property comes to the market perfect for anyone who wants a property they can put their own stamp on.

Internally, the ground floor features an open-plan lounge/diner, modern bathroom, kitchen, conservatory, lean to and two good-size dual-aspect bedrooms. The first floor includes a loft room.

Externally, the property benefits from a mostly-level rear garden, off-street parking for multiple vehicles and a garage.

The village of Hooley is just a short drive from the M23/25 intersection which can be used to access the rest of the national motorway network. The local 405 bus can be used for journeys to Coulston, West Croydon and Redhill while Coulston South Railway Station offers trains into Central London. Additionally, local shops and amenities include a BP garage, Starbucks and a newsagents.
