Rosebery Road, N10

This four-bedroom linked terraced family home with an abundance of period features such as fireplaces, high ceilings and stain glassed windows comes with a connected lounge and dining area, a spacious kitchen diner with direct access out onto a South - West facing rear garden that accommodates a recently built studio, currently used as a gym but also ideal for a work from home space.

On access to the property, you are instantly greeted by stained glass windows and original black and white checkered tiled flooring and a ground floor guest WC. At the bottom of the hallway you have access to a eat in kitchen area with access to the rear garden.

To the left of the property, you have access to the front reception and rear reception both of which are complemented nicely by good natural light, high ceilings and fireplaces with direct access onto a South-West facing rear garden with a recently built garden office currently being used as a gym.

On the first floor you have a family bathroom three double bedrooms and a single bedroom. There is also access to the loft that has full potential to be converted subject to planning permission. The rear of the house can also be extended on the ground floor, subject to planning permission.
