Queens Avenue, N10

This beautiful five bedroom, end-of-terrace Edwardian red-brick house offers timeless elegance and superb family living across an impressive footprint. Rich in original character, the property showcases standout high ceilings, stunning sash windows, and ornate fireplaces in the majority of its well-proportioned rooms.

A grand, handcrafted central staircase sets the tone upon entry, leading through a thoughtfully arranged layout that effortlessly balances period charm with modern flexibility. The property has been extended to the rear to incorporate a bright conservatory, providing an idyllic outlook over the mature, landscaped rear garden perfect for entertaining, family gatherings, or quiet moments of retreat.

The basement level is currently utilised as a practical utility space. Upstairs, five spacious bedrooms are arranged over the upper floors, offering light-filled accommodation and a sense of privacy and peace with an outside terrace for warm evenings.

With its striking facade, generous proportions, and enduring period detailing, this exceptional Edwardian home is a rare find for the location, perfectly placed for both city convenience and residential tranquillity.
