Onslow Gardens, N10

Raised slightly from street level, this elegant home enjoys a mature front garden providing privacy and curb appeal, complemented by a grand bay window and handcrafted woodwork above the entrance a fine example of the period craftsmanship characteristic of this sought-after road.

The ground floor welcomes you with a grand hallway featuring period fireplaces and access to a guest W/C. This leads through to a spacious double reception room filled with natural light and charming period details. To the rear, a conservatory-style extension flows seamlessly into a large kitchen and breakfast room, offering direct access to a generous rear garden. Across the upper floors are five double bedrooms. The first floor hosts three bedrooms, including one with an en-suite bathroom and an adjoining dressing room, as well as an additional family bathroom.

The second floor provides two further double bedrooms and another family bathroom. Each bedroom benefits from large sash windows that fill the rooms with natural light, while original fireplaces add to the home's warmth and period charm.
