Greenham Road, N10

On entrance to this beautifully fronted house, the hall leads onto a spacious double reception room with original period features such as two cast iron fireplaces. Connected by a small staircase is a kitchen dining room which has bi-fold doors leading onto a well-kept garden.

As well as a separate WC on this level, there is an abundance of additional space which is currently used as a utility room, an outstanding wine cellar and a gym space.

On the first floor, you are greeted by four good-sized bedrooms and a recently renovated family bathroom. There is also a loft which has been boarded but has potential to access for extra space.
