An early inspection is highly recommended of this 17th Century, Grade II Listed, detached former Farm House, occupying a generous corner plot within the heart of the West Lancashire Village of Tarleton.

Installed with timber framed double glazing and gas centrally heated, the well planned accommodation briefly comprises: Hall, Cloakroom/WC, Living Room with Study Area, Dining Room, Kitchen and Utility to the ground floor with four Bedrooms and Bathroom/WC to the first.

The farmhouse stands on a generous corner plot with gated access via Hesketh Lane onto a gravel laid driveway leading to a detached garage. There are established gardens to front, side and rear, the rear being a good size with cobble laid patio leading to extensive lawn with well stocked mature borders. There is a summer house, greenhouse and timber garden shed.

The property is positioned within the heart of the thriving Tarleton village, with bars, restaurants, independent shops and boutiques, as well as a local supermarket. There is a Post Office, health centre and has primary and secondary schools in the catchment. The area is linked via bypass routes to Southport, Preston City Centre and the motorway network.
