An early inspection is strongly recommended of this substantial, Victorian semi-detached home of character, standing in generous gardens and occupying a central Southport position.

The gas centrally heated and double glazed accommodation is arranged over four floors and briefly comprises: Entrance Vestibule, Hall, Living Room, Kitchen, Utility, Conservatory and Bedroom with En-Suite WC to the ground floor. There are three double Bedrooms, Bathroom and separate WC to the first floor with a further three double bedrooms (one with En-suite Bathroom) on the second floor.

A basement level provides a suite of cellar rooms providing excellent storage.

Outside, there is driveway parking to the front and a good size rear garden with paved patio and shaped lawn.

The property is positioned on Ash Street, between the junctions of Scarisbrick New Road and Forest Road, well placed for accessing local shops and schools with the town centre also readily accessible.
