LOCATION

Llanrhaeadr Ym Mochnant is an extremely popular village with a good range of attractions, including shops, primary school, dentist, butchers, garage and public houses. Situated approximately 13 miles from Oswestry, with access along the A5 for Shrewsbury and Wrexham, yet within beautiful countryside, on the edge of the Tanat Valley, leading to lakes Vyrnwy and Bala.

Penybontfawr is a popular residential village, situated in idyllic countryside, renowned for its walks and dramatic scenery. The village has a shop, church, chapel, primary school and public house which all go to serve the villages day to day needs.

Larger shopping facilities are available in Oswestry, Llanfyllin and Welshpool which are an easy drive away.

PISTYLL RHAEADR WATERFALL

The tallest waterfall in Wales located only 5 miles away. Pistyll Rhaeadr the highest single drop waterfall in the country and is counted as one of the Seven Wonders of Wales.

BERWYN MOUNTAINS

This stunning natural location provides some excellent opportunities for getting to grips with the Welsh countryside and its secret beauty. Summits in the Berwyn mountain range include the impressive Cadair Berwyn, which reaches to 830 metres. Moel Sych reaches 827 metres, and at 784 metres, Craig Rhiwarth with its remains of an iron age settlement. On the way the views are breathtaking with streams, cliff edges, moors and valleys.

DIRECTIONS

Take the A483 out of Oswestry for approximately 4 miles to Llyncllys. Turn right signposted Llanrhaeadr, follow this road for about 8 miles, turning left sign posted Bala/Penybontfawr, proceed over two bridges approximately a mile apart turning immediately left after the second bridge. Proceed on this lane and the entrance to the property will be found approximately 1 mile on the left hand side.
