Church House Arddleen, Llanymynech, Powys, SY22 6RX

Welcome to this charming property located in the picturesque village of Arddleen with lovely views towards Rodney's Pillar. This stunning detached house boasts a unique history as a former Methodist Church, and features a plethora of beautiful period and character features.

As you step inside, you'll be greeted by three spacious reception rooms, perfect for entertaining guests or simply relaxing with your family. With four bedrooms and two bathrooms, there is ample space for everyone to enjoy their own privacy and comfort.

The property's period features add a touch of elegance and nostalgia, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere throughout. The double glazing and oil central heating ensure that you'll stay cozy and warm during the colder months.

Outside, you'll find off-road parking and a covered store, providing convenience and security for your vehicles and belongings. The gardens surrounding the property could easily be landscaped to create a picturesque retreat and canal walks are in close proximity.

- Beautiful Converted Methodist Church
- Original Ornate Church Doors
- Vaulted Ceiling with Exposed Beams
- Lovely Views of Rodney's Pillar
- Close Proximity to Canal Walks
- Ample Off-Road Parking & Outside Store

LOCATION

The popular and accessible village of Arddleen lies on the A483 Welshpool to Oswestry road. Arddleen has a primary school and public house with nearby convenience stores available in the villages of Four Crosses and Guilsfield. A good range of amenities can be found at the nearby market town of Welshpool including shopping, leisure, social and educational facilities as well as a railway station. Alternatively Oswestry, Shrewsbury, Wrexham and Chester are accessible for commuters on a daily basis.

DIRECTIONS

From Oswestry proceed along the A483 towards Welshpool. Turn right by the Horseshoe Public House, proceed and take the second left turning where the property will be observed on the left hand side.
