LOCATION

The property occupies a most attractive rural location, amidst an unspoilt farming area on the Shropshire/Welsh borders. From the property there are some wonderful views over open farmland. Shrewsbury is readily accessible and includes a comprehensive shopping centre and an excellent range of social and leisure facilities, together with a rail service. Alternatively, also within easy reach are the thriving market towns of Welshpool and Oswestry, whilst the commercial centres of Telford and Wolverhampton to the East and Chester to the North are within commutable distance. Equestrian enthusiasts will note a network of country lanes in the locality for riding out purposes, fishing on the rivers Seven and Vyrnwy and golf clubs at Oswestry and Llanymnech. Also on national cycle route and close to walking routes along the Severn Way and the Shropshire Way.

DIRECTIONS

From the A5 Wolf's Head roundabout, take the turning for Knockin, along the B4396 road. Take the first turning left for Dovaston and follow this road all the way through to Kinnerley, continue on to the primary school and turn right signed Argoed / Molverley. Follow this road bearing left by the farm and continue on to the next T junction at Cross Lanes. Turn left again for Molverley and continue on past a thatched house on the left and then take the next left turning. The property will then be found third house on the right hand side.
