SITUATION

Locally there are a selection of amenities, whilst more comprehensive facilities can be found at the lovely tourist centre of Llangollen approx. 5 miles, Oswestry to the south approx. 9.7 miles or Wrexham approx. 8 miles. Commuters have easy access to the A483 road linking through to Chester or south to the A5.

DESCRIPTION

Erw Wen offers an exciting opportunity to acquire such a beautifully appointed and tastefully presented detached family house, set on a large corner plot. The accommodation is deceptively spacious throughout and the rooms are notably well lit by natural light which floods through the windows having a south west front facing aspect. There is an excellent standard of fittings and the open plan kitchen/breakfast/diner is a true reflection of this. The kitchen itself is comprehensively fitted with a quality range of appliances and there is a very useful walk-in pantry leading off. The generous size rear entrance hall has convenient access to the double garage with additional doors off to a separate cloaks/guest WC and a large store. There are four particularly good size bedrooms on the first floor which are served by independent bath and shower rooms.

Outside there is ample parking for a number of vehicles including caravan/trailer etc. The garden areas wrap around the house predominantly on two sides which is in addition to an orchard at the rear.

Prospective purchasers may wish to investigate the possibilities of some limited residential development on the orchard area.
