DIRECTIONS

From the town centre proceed up Willow Street passing the Fire Station on the right hand side. Continue up the hill and turn left onto Hampton Rise and follow this road all the way through to virtually the end and the property will be seen on the left hand side just before the end of the cul-de-sac.

SITUATION

The property is well situated in a sought after residential area on the outskirts of Oswestry. The town centre offers a thriving shopping area together with leisure facilities and supermarkets. There are a good range of schools, whilst commuters have easy access to the A5 trunk road which links both south and north to Shrewsbury and Telford or Wrexham and Chester. There is a rail service in the neighbouring village of Gobowen approximately 3 miles away.

DESCRIPTION

This appealing and spaciouly proportioned detached house, located in a lovely near-end cul-de-sac position, has been designed to suit a range of buyers, whether they be young families, couples or retirees. The accommodation is neatly presented and offers a degree of versatility, with scope, if required to remodel the kitchen and take in part of the lounge/dining area, to create a kitchen/diner. The layout includes a central reception hall with a modern fitted cloaks/WC. The generous size lounge/diner extends from the front of the house to the rear in an L shape with a fireplace feature and then linking via twin doors through to a wonderful garden room, which has bifold doors and a separate set of twin folding doors leading out to the rear garden and patio. The kitchen is located adjacent and is neatly presented with oak faced units and provides a separate utility room. On the first floor the principal bedroom has an en-suite shower room, whilst the three remaining bedrooms are then served by the main family bathroom.

Outside those requiring space for multiple vehicles will be pleased to see that there is a long driveway and a brick garage. The gardens are neatly presented and are spaciouly proportioned to both the front and rear and includes a generous patio also to the rear.
