GENERAL REMARKS

Craig Goch is an outstanding five-bedroom red sandstone barn conversion, created around 20 years ago from a former milking barn and lovingly owned by the same family since its completion. The property blends traditional character with modern efficiency, offering almost 3,700 sq ft of beautifully proportioned accommodation. Elevated within landscaped grounds and gardens, the home enjoys far-reaching views across rolling countryside towards both England and Wales, with a private “Gin Terrace” perfectly positioned to capture unforgettable sunsets.

PROPERTY

Craig Goch is an exceptional five-bedroom red sandstone barn conversion, extending to approximately 3,692 sq ft (343 sq m) and offering beautifully proportioned accommodation with character, style and efficiency. Converted around 20 years ago from a former milking barn and occupied by the current vendors since completion, the property has been lovingly maintained and enhanced, blending original charm with modern practicality. A grand oak-framed entrance hall with slate flooring, oak panelling and a sweeping staircase rising to a galleried landing sets the tone, leading to a superb sitting room filled with natural light, centred around a brick inglenook fireplace with oak lintel and log burning stove, and a separate formal dining room of excellent scale, ideal for entertaining. At the heart of the home is a stylish kitchen/breakfast room with sleek modern units, integrated appliances and French doors opening to the rear terrace, complemented by a walk-in pantry, utility and boot room, with the added luxury of a of a chilled wine cellar.

The ground floor also includes a double bedroom, well-suited for guests or single-level living, and a separate office, perfect for home working. Upstairs, the galleried landing provides a striking feature and versatile space, leading to four further double bedrooms including a generous principal suite with bespoke fitted wardrobes, alongside a contemporary wet room and further bathrooms. Throughout, the house combines exposed stonework, oak joinery and vaulted ceilings with high-specification systems including air source heating, solar panels with battery storage and hot water heat panels, ensuring excellent efficiency. Ancillary accommodation includes an integral garage and useful store rooms, with ample gravelled parking and turning space to the front. The gardens and grounds are a particular highlight, with sweeping lawns framed by landscaped borders and flower beds, a productive orchard of apples, pears, plums and nut trees, space for vegetables, a greenhouse and shed, and access for vehicles at the far end. French doors open from the kitchen to a large entertaining terrace, while a private Gin Terrace has been thoughtfully positioned to capture magical sunsets across the valley. With its blend of character, space and exceptional presentation inside and out. Craig Goch offers a superb opportunity to acquire a unique family home in a beautiful countryside setting.

GARDENS

The outside space at Craig Goch is a true highlight, carefully landscaped and designed to combine beauty, productivity, and year-round enjoyment.

To the rear of the property, sweeping lawns provide an open and elegant backdrop, bordered by beautifully maintained planting beds and flower borders that deliver colour and structure throughout the seasons.

The gardens also feature a productive orchard, planted with a wide variety of fruit trees including apples, pears, plums, and nut trees, alongside space for soft fruit and dedicated vegetable patches – perfect for those with an interest in self-sufficiency.

From the French doors off the kitchen, a generous entertaining terrace creates the ideal setting for al fresco dining and gatherings with friends and family. This area flows seamlessly into the garden and sits adjacent to a greenhouse and garden store, providing practicality as well as charm.

Beyond the main lawns, a pathway leads to the much-loved Gin Terrace – a private stone terrace, cleverly positioned to capture magical sunsets across the valley, offering a unique and atmospheric space for evening relaxation.

SCHOOLING

The area is well served with a choice of both state and private schools, including Ruabon, Oswestry School, Moreton Hall, Ellesmere College, and The Marches Academy. In Wrexham, options include The Maelor School, St Joseph's Catholic & Anglican High School and Ysgol Morgan Llwyd. Chester also provides a number of highly regarded independent schools, notably The King's School and Queen's School, both of which attract families from across the region.
