Discover this well-presented detached home on Bradfield Avenue, an ideal opportunity for landlords only, complete with an already paying and reliable tenant in situ, offering immediate rental income and minimal void periods. This attractive property boasts a spacious modern kitchen/diner with views over the well-maintained rear garden, perfect for family living and entertaining. A bright, welcoming lounge and a practical ground-floor study provide versatile living space. The master bedroom features its own en-suite, complemented by three further generously sized bedrooms and a contemporary family bathroom/WC, making this a highly desirable rental home. Outside, the property offers a good-sized rear garden, ideal for tenants seeking private outdoor space, along with ample off-road parking, a valuable asset for modern households.

Situated in the popular Morley area, residents benefit from excellent local schools, convenient transport links, and easy access to Morley town centre, with its mix of shops, cafés, leisure facilities, and the White Rose Shopping Centre just a short drive away. The area's strong community feel and commuter access to Leeds make this a consistently sought-after rental location. A superb investment opportunity in a thriving part of West Yorkshire.
