20 Beacon Park First Avenue Pickering

A delightful traditional five bedroom semi detached home offering immaculately presented accommodation on three floors together with beautiful gardens enjoying views over the surrounding countryside towards Pickering Castle to the rear.

The property enjoys a pleasant position along Beacon Park First Avenue which is a highly desirable residential location situated to the West side of Pickering town centre.

The deceptively spacious and well presented accommodation comprises reception hallway, sitting room, dining room, sunroom, breakfast kitchen, cloakroom and utility on the ground floor; three bedrooms and bathroom on the first floor and two bedrooms one with ensuite on the second floor. In addition there is a workshop and library.

Externally a driveway provides parking. Both front and back gardens are organic, comprising an attractive mix of shrubs, flower beds, fruit bushes and apple trees. The rear garden has a brick built potting shed and various other sheds.

Beacon Park is situated just off Pickering town centre and is within walking distance of all local amenities and recreational facilities which Pickering offers.

VIEWING IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED.
